Le Parc « Renaissance »

Let the Renaissance Paris Hotel Le Parc Trocadero be your peaceful haven in one of the most prestigious neighborhoods of Paris : near the Champs-Élysées, the Eiffel Tower and the Paris Congress Center. The Hotel reflects pure elegance and refinement while maintaining the atmosphere of old Paris.

A century of History : This elegant Hotel is born from the combination of two main buildings and their annexes. Built in 1912, the first building, situated at 55-57 avenue Raymond Poincaré quickly became a unique and privileged residence for the elite of Parisian Society. At number 59, the second and oldest part, was the residence of Alfred Nobel. It was rebuilt in 1910 in the « Art Nouveau Style » by the architects Charles Letrosne and Camille Garnier. This building is classified as a National Historical Monument of France.

With its trees and flowers, the 1.200 sqm courtyard, is surrounded by three « Anglo-Normands » buildings which used to host the bronze and glass-making workshop of the famous wrought iron craftsman : Baguès.

The Hotel joined the Marriott group on August 1st, 2007 and went through renovations in January 2008. The Lobby and bar have been re-decorated and the bedrooms have been equipped with the finest technologies and latest international safety requirements. Some of the meeting rooms were also re-done at the beginning of 2009. The Hotel has kept the authentic charm of a beautiful French residence together with a high standard of Service.

The Restaurant “Le Relais du Parc” has changed its note, with a new menu composed by Alain Ducasse and run by Alexandre Nicolas. A simple and tasty cuisine that will remind you of delicious family meals and convivial moments shared with friends.

The garden is an invitation to relaxation and the best place to have a peaceful lunch or a moonlit dinner...
Menu of the day starting at 33€ for lunch and at 43€ for dinner.

The 116 rooms around the inner garden offer timeless appeal...

12 function rooms (600 sqm) most with daylight and direct access to the courtyard, embellish every moment with a sense of escape...
